

未来のために今できること

Place Nishijin Plaza (2-16-23 Nishijin, Sawaraku, Fukuoka City)

Science Communicators
(Kaori Hatsumi, William Potscavage, Raymond K Terhune)

Free and open to the public

Prof. Scott Valentine
(Professor,
Director of Research Promotions Office,
Asian and Oceanian Studies Institute, from Canada)

Program

10-min talks followed by 15-min Q&A

14:10- Prof. Scott Valentine

What is a circular economy?

An economy that regenerates the environment, communities, and people

14:35- Student presentations

Samantha (Indonesia), Sara (Japan), Baoyi (China), Katharina (Germany)

Fast fashion & food waste

Did you know your clothes harm the environment?

15:05- Prof. Kentaro Yoshida

Can electric vehicles help tackle climate change in Japan?

15:30- Prof. Minako Ikeda

Design thinking for SDGs

16:10-

Group discussions

Prof. Johan Lauwereyns
Moderator (Vice President for International Affairs,
Vice Dean of the School of Interdisciplinary Science and Innovation, from Belgium)

Prof. Minako Ikeda
(Associate Professor, Faculty of Design)

Date July 2, 2022 (Saturday)

Time 14:00-17:00

Place Nishijin Plaza (2-16-23 Nishijin, Sawaraku, Fukuoka City)

To register, go to

<https://www.kyushu-u.ac.jp/redirects/kuconnect72>

Registration deadline: June 30, 2022

Language: English and Japanese

Contact: Public Relations Initiative, Kyushu University

TEL : 092-802-2131 / Email : sysintlkh@jimu.kyushu-u.ac.jp

Web: <https://www.kyushu-u.ac.jp/en/university/connect/>

Registration QR code

