

Oct. 26 15:00-17:00 JST

All are welcome!
(Language: English)

International Education

Lessons from the PANDEMIC & Suggestions for the FUTURE

How has the global health crisis of COVID-19 affected international education to date? And where should we go from here? – This forum focuses on the experiences of three short-term study programs carried out annually by Kyushu University International Student Center (ISC) as part of the university's campus-wide effort to promote international education. The panelists are the ISC faculty members who coordinate these programs first-hand. Please join this forum to learn from their critical perspectives of how their programs should be adjusted to fit the socio-cultural and economic landscapes of the coming 'post-pandemic' era. From the discussion you may draw significant implications relevant to your own practice or study of international education in the future.

PANELISTS

PROGRAM

Chisato NONAKA, Ph.D. (Education)
Associate Professor, Kyushu U. ISC
Faculty Coordinator
Japan In Today's World

Hiroko IKUTA, Ph.D. (Anthropology)
Associate Professor, Kyushu U. ISC
Faculty Coordinator
ASEAN In Today's World

Hiroko KINOSHITA, Ph.D. (Area Studies)
Associate Professor, Kyushu U. ISC
Faculty Coordinator
College of Asia Pacific

I. Experiences of ISC Short-Term Study Programs

Japan In Today's World (JTW) – for int'l students
ASEAN In Today's World (AsTW) – for int'l & Kyushu U. Students
College of Asia Pacific (CAP) – for int'l & Kyushu U. Students

II. Panel Discussion

International Study Programs – How to adjust or maintain amid and beyond the pandemic for impactful learning experience?

III. The Future of International Education

Open Discussion and Q&A

MODERATOR

Masa HIGO, Ph.D. (Sociology)
Professor, Kyushu U. ISC
Primary Faculty Coordinator
Japan In Today's World

REGISTER HERE

