Every year Taiwan Studies Program and the 21st Century Program organize an intensive course, Taiwan Today (台湾事情), covering various issues in contemporary Taiwanese society. Due to the COVID-19 crisis, this year's course will be offered online

This year, we invited five distinguished speakers, a Taiwan-based writer, Ms. Hikari Sumiki (栖来ひかり), Prof. Chizuru Tainaka (胎中千鶴) from Mejiro University, Prof. Maoko Mityaoka (宮岡真央子) from Fukuoka University, Prof. Yuko Mio (三尾裕子) from Keio University and Prof. Edward Vickers from Kyushu University.

Except for the lecture by Prof. Vickers, all the lectures will be held in Japanese. However, English interpretation will be available for all the lectures.

【Precautions】

- Those who registered by email do not need to submit the form.
- Please apply at least 3 days before the lecture you wish to attend.
- The registration is on first-come-first-served basis.
- Invitation to the event will be send out the day before the lecture.
- In principle, the Japanese-English translation is only available for those who registered through Moodle. If you wish for the translation service, please make sure to select 'yes' for the English interpreter.
