※If you wish to apply for the enrollment fee exemption or deferment, please submit a separate application form "Provisional Application for Enrollment　Fee Exemption/Deferment".

I submit this provisional application for the tuition fee exemption after understanding the following notes.
If I do not complete required process during an application period after university admission, or if I decline my application, I pledge to pay the tuition fee.

Applicant's Name

[Notes]

1. Payment of the tuition fee will be deferred for the designated period by submitting this application form.
2. If you will apply for the tuition fee exemption, please do not pay the tuition fee until the result is notified. (If you pay it, your application will be canceled.)
3. In addition to the submission of this form, all applicants are required to follow the three processes below after enrolling in the university.
   ①Pre-check(※recommended): If you have any questions about application process and required documents, please bring pre-check sheets and required documents to a designated counter for pre-check.
   ②Step1(※mandatory): Register to "Tuition Fee Exemption System" on the web.
   ③Step2(※mandatory): Submit the required documents to the submission counter.
   ※Regarding the required documents, please refer to Kyushu University Website (https://www.kyushu-u.ac.jp/en/education/fees/exempt01) and prepare in advance.
   ※For whatever reason, if you do not complete all procedures by the deadline, your application will be canceled.

※University use only (Students are not required to fill in.)
