[4]

I would like to choose Plan B. The first reason is that I do not like to get up so early. If I choose Plan A, I have to get up at 5:00 am. The second reason is that I want to enjoy the scenery and atmosphere of the island. If I choose Plan B, I can stay longer on the island than Plan A allows. Though the money I can use will decrease, it does not matter very much for me. I want to relax on the beach or walk around towns in the island, which does not cost so much money. (103 words)

[5]

If there were fewer shopping streets in Japan, the local community would be lost. This is because such streets act as a center of local activity and the shop owners have a group that help each other through tough times, marketing their products to the residents, organising events, and also giving back to the community.

In addition, many of the stores feature traditional crafts and small-scale food businesses. Closing those stores means there will be fewer traditional craftspeople in the future. (81 words)
