I agree to the replacement of old buildings with high-rise buildings. Recently, the population of Japan has been decreasing rapidly. Fortunately, the population of my city is increasing. I think this is a big chance for the city to prosper. Its buildings are beautiful, but not so famous. It is better to replace them with new beautiful buildings and create an advanced landscape for the future of this city. I believe they will attract talented young people and growing companies to this city. (83 words)
