

○Changes to the University's Tuition and Enrollment Fee Exemption System (Notice to Students)

Translated by DeepL

Starting in the 2026 academic year, the tuition and enrollment fee exemption system for undergraduate students will change.

Students enrolled in the 2025 academic year or earlier (current students) will be subject to transitional measures for the 2026 academic year only.

The exemption system for graduate students will also change starting in the 2027 academic year.

Details of the system, including financial and academic requirements, will be announced at a later date.
