Chapter I General Provisions

(Purpose)

Article 1 (1) Kyushu University (hereinafter referred to as the "University") aims to, as the core of scholarly activities, impart wide-ranging knowledge, teach and research specialized arts and sciences in depth, and have students develop their intellectual, ethical and practical abilities, in accordance with the spirit of the Basic Act on Education (Act No. 120 of 2006).

(2) The University shall conduct education and research intended to accomplish the purpose referred to in the preceding paragraph and disseminate the results thereof widely, thereby contributing to the development of society.

(Self-assessment)

Article 2 (1) The University shall inspect and assess the status of educational and research activities and other activities carried out at the University and publicize the results thereof in order to enhance the level of its education and research, and to accomplish its purpose and social mission.

(2) The University shall have the results of the self-inspection and assessment referred to in the preceding paragraph and those of various evaluations such as third-party evaluations reflected in its objectives and plans, and make constant efforts for continuous reforms.

(Publication of Status of Educational and Research Activities)

Article 2-2 The University shall publicize the status of its educational and research activities in order to contribute to the dissemination of education and research results and the promotion of use of such results.

Chapter II Organizations

(Undergraduate Schools)

Article 3 (1) The University has in place undergraduate schools and departments as set forth in the following table:

Undergraduate Schools	Departments
-----------------------	-------------

School of Interdisciplinary Science and Innovation	Department of Interdisciplinary Science and Innovation
School of Letters	Department of Humanities
School of Education
School of Law
School of Economics	Department of Economy and Business Department of Economic Engineering
School of Science	Department of Physics Department of Chemistry Department of Earth and Planetary Sciences Department of Mathematics Department of Biology
School of Medicine	Department of Medicine Department of Biomedical Science Department of Health Sciences
School of Dentistry	Department of Dentistry
School of Pharmaceutical Sciences	Department of Medical Sciences Department of Clinical Pharmacy
School of Engineering	Department of Electrical Engineering and Computer Science Department of Materials Department of Applied Chemistry Department of Chemical Engineering Department of Interdisciplinary Engineering Department of Mechanical Engineering Department of Aeronautics and Astronautics Department of Applied Quantum Physics and Nuclear Engineering Department of Naval Architecture and Ocean Engineering Department of Earth Resources Engineering Department of Civil Engineering Department of Architecture
School of Design	Department of Design
School of Agriculture	Department of Bioresource and Bioenvironment

(2) The purposes relevant to development of human resources and other educational and research purposes for each undergraduate school or department are provided separately by regulations.

(3) The policies relevant to graduation certification, the policies relevant to the formation and implementation of curriculum, and the policies relevant to acceptance of enrolled students are provided separately for each undergraduate school or department.

(4) The composition of a faculty organization and other necessary matters of each undergraduate school are provided separately by regulations.

(5) The duration of study, curriculum, admission, withdrawal, graduation, and other matters necessary for schooling of students of undergraduate schools are provided by the General Regulations of Undergraduate Schools of Kyushu University (Kyushu University Regulation No. 2 of 2004).

(Graduate Schools/Faculties)

Article 4 (1) The University has in place Kyushu University Graduate Schools/Faculties (hereinafter referred to as the "Graduate Schools/Faculties").

(2) In accordance with the purpose of the University, the Graduate Schools/Faculties aim to teach and research academic theory and application, delving into the depth thereof, or to cultivate students' deep knowledge and excellent abilities as needed to engage in occupations that require advanced expertise, thereby contributing to the advancement of culture.

(3) Among the Graduate Schools/Faculties, those aiming to teach and research academic theory and application and to cultivate students' deep knowledge and excellent abilities as needed to engage in occupations that require advanced expertise are set up as professional graduate schools.

Article 5 The Graduate Schools/Faculties consist of graduate schools organized according to the educational purposes (including joint graduate schools established as basic organizations for implementation of joint courses of graduate schools, etc. provided in Article 30-2, paragraph (1) of the Standards for Establishment of Graduate Schools (Order of the Ministry of Education, Science and Culture No. 28 of 1956); the same applies hereinafter), and graduate faculties organized according to the research purposes and in consideration of educational necessity, both of which are established as basic organizations for education and research other than the graduate school departments referred to in the proviso to Article 100 of the School Education Act (Act No. 26 of 1947).

Article 6 (1) The graduate schools established to constitute the Graduate Schools/Faculties referred to in the preceding Article are as set forth in the left-hand column of the following table, and the University has in place departments set forth in the right-hand column of the same table these graduate schools:

Graduate Schools	Departments
Graduate School of Humanities	Department of Philosophy Department of History and Geography Department of Linguistics and Literature
Graduate School of Integrated Sciences for Global Society	Department of Integrated Sciences for Global Society
Graduate School of Human-Environment Studies	Department of Urban Design, Planning and Disaster Management Department of Clinical Psychology and Community Studies Department of Behavioral and Health Sciences Department of Education Department of Architecture Department of Clinical Psychology Practice
Graduate School of Law	Department of Law and Politics

Law School	Department of Legal Practice
Graduate School of Economics	Department of Economic Engineering Department of Economic Systems Department of Business and Technology Management
Graduate School of Science	Department of Physics Department of Chemistry Department of Earth and Planetary Sciences
Graduate School of Mathematics	Department of Mathematics
Graduate School of Systems Life Sciences	Department of Systems Life Sciences
Graduate School of Medical Sciences	Department of Medical Sciences Master Course in Graduate School of Medical Sciences Department of Health Sciences Department of Health Care Administration and Management
Graduate School of Dental Science	Department of Dental Science
Graduate School of Pharmaceutical Sciences	Department of Medicinal Sciences Department of Clinical Pharmacy
Graduate School of Engineering	Department of Materials Department of Applied Chemistry Department of Chemical Engineering Department of Mechanical Engineering Department of Hydrogen Energy Systems Department of Aeronautics and Astronautics Department of Applied Quantum Physics and Nuclear Engineering Department of Naval Architecture and Ocean Engineering Department of Earth Resources Engineering Department of Cooperative Program for Resources Engineering Department of Civil Engineering
Graduate School of Design	Department of Design
Graduate School of Information Science and Electrical Engineering	Department of Information Science and Technology Department of Electrical and Electronic Engineering
Interdisciplinary Graduate School of Engineering Sciences	Department of Interdisciplinary Engineering Sciences
Graduate School of Bioresource and Bioenvironmental Sciences	Department of Bioresource Sciences Department of Agro-environmental Sciences Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics Department of Bioscience and Biotechnology

Graduate School of Integrated Frontier Sciences	Department of Kansei Science Department of Automotive Science Department of Library Science
Joint Graduate Program of Mathematics for Innovation
Notes: Graduate schools provide doctoral programs; provided, however, that: the Master Course in Graduate School of Medical Sciences provides a master's program; and the Department of Clinical Psychology Practice in the Graduate School of Human-Environment Studies, the Department of Legal Practice in the Law School, Department of Business and Technology Management in the Graduate School of Economics, and the Department of Health Care Administration and Management in the Graduate School of Medical Sciences provide professional degree programs (meaning programs of professional graduate schools referred to in Article 4, paragraph (3); the same applies hereinafter); among these, the Department of Legal Practice in the Law School is set up as a law school.

- (2) The purposes relevant to development of human resources and other educational and research purposes for each graduate school or department are provided separately by regulations.
- (3) The policies relevant to graduation certification, the policies relevant to the formation and implementation of curriculum, and the policies relevant to acceptance of enrolled students are provided separately for each graduate school or department.
- (4) Doctoral programs aim to cultivate students' advanced research abilities in their major fields as needed to carry out research activities independently as researchers or engage in other highly specialized work and a wealth of knowledge that supports such abilities.
- (5) Master's programs aim to impart deep and detailed knowledge from a broad perspective, and cultivate students' research abilities in their major fields or excellent abilities as needed to engage in occupations that require advanced expertise in addition to such research abilities.
- (6) Professional degree programs aim to cultivate students' deep knowledge and excellent abilities as needed to engage in occupations that require advanced expertise; among these, the professional degree program at a law school aims exclusively to provide education to train legal professionals.
- (7) The composition of a faculty organization and other necessary matters of each graduate school are provided separately by regulations.
- (8) The duration of study, educational methods, admission, withdrawal, completion of programs, and other matters necessary for schooling of students of graduate schools are provided by the General Regulations of Graduate Schools of Kyushu University (Kyushu University Regulation No. 3 of 2004).

Article 7 The graduate faculties established to constitute the Graduate Schools/Faculties referred to in Article 5 are as set forth in the following:

- (i) Faculty of Humanities;
- (ii) Faculty of Social and Cultural Studies;
- (iii) Faculty of Human-Environment Studies;
- (iv) Faculty of Law;
- (v) Faculty of Economics;
- (vi) Faculty of Languages and Cultures;
- (vii) Faculty of Science;
- (viii) Faculty of Mathematics;

- (ix) Faculty of Medical Sciences;
- (x) Faculty of Dental Science;
- (xi) Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences;
- (xii) Faculty of Engineering;
- (xiii) Faculty of Design;
- (xiv) Faculty of Information Science and Electrical Engineering;
- (xv) Faculty of Engineering Sciences; and
- (xvi) Faculty of Agriculture.

(Faculty of Arts and Science)

Article 7-2 (1) The University has in place the Faculty of Arts and Science as a university-wide organization for fostering the basis for learning that all students of the University are expected to have in common.

(2) The internal organization and other necessary matters of the Faculty of Arts and Science are provided separately.

(Institute for Advanced Study)

Article 7-3 (1) The University has in place the Institute for Advanced Study as a university-wide organization for fostering human resources through the promotion and development of advanced research activities and widely sharing the research results with society.

(2) The internal organization and other necessary matters of the Institute for Advanced Study are provided separately.

(Attached Research Institutes)

Article 8 (1) The University has in place research institutes attached to the University.

(2) The research institutes referred to in the preceding paragraph (hereinafter referred to as the “Attached Research Institutes”) are as set forth in the left-hand column of the following table, and the purposes of these Attached Research Institutes are as set forth in the right-hand column of the same table:

Attached Research Institutes	Purposes
Medical Institute of Bioregulation	Research on theories of bioregulation and application thereof
Research Institute for Applied Mechanics	Research on theories of mechanics and application thereof
Institute for Materials Chemistry and Engineering	Cutting-edge, comprehensive research in materials chemistry
Institute of Mathematics for Industry	Research on industrial application of mathematics and theories thereof

(3) The internal organization and other necessary matters of each Attached Research Institute are provided separately by regulations.

(International Institute)

Article 8-2 (1) The University has in place the International Institute for Carbon-Neutral Energy Research.

(2) The International Institute for Carbon-Neutral Energy Research aims to create basic science in carbon-neutral energy research and contribute to solving challenges toward achieving a sustainable and environmentally-friendly society.

(3) The internal organization and other necessary matters of the International Institute for Carbon-Neutral Energy Research are provided separately by regulations.

(Hospital)

Article 9 (1) The University has in place an affiliated hospital in the School of Medicine and the School of Dentistry, as an educational and research facility for their joint use, which is called Kyushu University Hospital (hereinafter referred to as the "Hospital").

(2) The internal organization and other necessary matters of the Hospital are provided separately by regulations.

(University Library)

Article 10 (1) The University has in place the University Library.

(2) The internal organization and other necessary matters of the University Library are provided separately by regulations.

Article 11 Deleted

(Research Institute for Information Technology)

Article 12 (1) The University has in place the Research Institute for Information Technology as a nationwide joint use facility for conducting practical investigation and research, developing and providing infrastructure equipment or the like, and carrying out other specialized operations for the purpose of promoting the use of information in research, education and other activities.

(2) In addition to the operations referred to in the preceding paragraph, the Research Institute for Information Technology carries out system development for the information infrastructure in the University.

(3) The internal organization and other necessary matters of the Research Institute for Information Technology are provided separately by regulations.

(Joint Use Educational Center)

Article 12-2 The Faculty of Arts and Science provided in Article 7-2 is shall made available for the use by other universities as a Joint Use Educational Center certified by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology pursuant to the provisions of Article 143-2, paragraph (2) of the Enforcement Regulation of the School Education Act (Order of the Ministry of Education No. 11 of 1947; hereinafter referred to as the "School Education Act Enforcement Regulation").

(Joint Usage/Research Centers)

Article 12-3 The Attached Research Institutes, etc. set forth in the following table shall serve for the development of academic research as respective Joint Usage/Research Centers certified by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology pursuant to the provisions of Article 143-3, paragraph (2) of the School Education Act Enforcement Regulation:

Attached Research Institutes, etc.	Joint Usage/Research Centers	Period of certification
Medical Institute of Bioregulation	Joint Usage / Research Center for the Multi-stratified Host Defense System	From April 1, 2022, to March 31, 2028
Research Institute for Applied Mechanics	Joint-research Institute for Applied Mechanics	From April 1, 2022, to March 31, 2028
Institute for Materials Chemistry and Engineering	Joint Research Center for Materials and Devices	From April 1, 2022, to March 31, 2028
Institute of Mathematics for Industry	Center for collaborative research in advanced and fundamental mathematics for industry	From April 1, 2022, to March 31, 2028
Research Institute for Information Technology	Joint Usage / Research Center for Interdisciplinary Large-scale Information Infrastructures	From April 1, 2022, to March 31, 2028

(Platform of Inter / Transdisciplinary Energy Research)

Article 12-4 (1) The University has in place the Platform of Inter / Transdisciplinary Energy Research, as a university-wide organization to promote advanced research and educational activities in the energy field.

(2) The internal organization and other necessary matters of the Platform of Inter / Transdisciplinary Energy Research are provided separately.

(Institute for Asian and Oceanian Studies)

Article 12-5(1) The University has in place the Institute for Asian and Oceanian Studies as a university-wide organization for promoting research and educational activities aimed at solving social issues in the Asia and Oceania region and discovering and presenting these issues.

(2) The internal organization and other necessary matters of the Institute for Asian and Oceanian Studies are provided separately.

(Centers for Common Education and Research)

Article 13 (1) The University has in place Centers for Common Education and Research as organizations having any of functions in the following items which the faculty members of the University and other persons engage in education and research activities jointly:

- (i) to mainly support educational or research activities;
- (ii) to mainly promote education or research; or
- (iii) to mainly promote other university-wide operations.

(2) Centers for Common Education and Research are as set forth in the left-hand column of the following table, and among these Centers for Common Education and Research, those subject to the period of existence will cease to exist upon the date of expiration of the respective period of existence as set forth in the right-hand column of the same table:

Centers for Common Education and Research	Date of expiration of the period of existence

(2) The internal organization and other necessary matters of each affiliated institute are provided separately by the head of the relevant undergraduate schools, etc.

(Information Infrastructure Initiative)

Article 15 (1) The University has in place the Information Infrastructure Initiative as an organization for providing university-wide information support.

(2) The purposes of the Information Infrastructure Initiative are as set forth in the following:

(i) develop university-wide information infrastructure; and

(ii) provide comprehensive support for operations relevant to education and research and university administration carried out using information technology.

(3) The composition and other necessary matters of the Information Infrastructure Initiative are provided separately by regulations.

(Relocation Coordination Executive)

Article 15-2 (1) The University has in place the Relocation Coordination Executive as an organization for promoting the project of the integrated transfer and the development plan for the Ito Campus.

(2) The composition and other necessary matters of the Relocation Coordination Executive are provided separately by regulations.

(Endowment Management Executive)

Article 15-3 (1) The University has in place the Endowment Management Executive as an organization for promoting the support grant program by the Kyushu University Fund and the fund enhancement program (hereinafter referred to as the "fund programs").

(2) The composition and other necessary matters of the Endowment Management Executive are provided separately by regulations.

(Public Relations Initiative)

Article 15-4 (1) The University has in place the Public Relations Initiative as an organization for drawing up public relations strategies and promoting public relations activities.

(2) The composition and other necessary matters of the Public Relations Initiative are provided separately by regulations.

(Project Headquarters)

Article 15-5 (1) The University has in place the Project Headquarters as an organization for promoting globalization on a university-wide basis.

(2) The composition and other necessary matters of the Project Headquarters are provided separately by regulations.

(Academic Research and Industrial Collaboration Management Office of Kyushu University)

Article 15-6 (1) The University has in place the Academic Research and Industrial Collaboration Management Office of Kyushu University as an organization to promote the university wide academic research and industry-academia-government collaboration.

(2) The composition and other necessary matters of the Academic Research and Industrial Collaboration Management Office of Kyushu University are provided separately by regulations.

(Education Innovation Initiative)

Article 15-7 (1) The University has in place the Education Innovation Initiative as an organization to promote initiatives such as improvement of curricula and educational methods, educational reforms including High School-University Articulation and University Entrance Examination Reforms, and development of career education.

(2) The composition and other necessary matters of the University Education Innovation Initiative are provided for separately by regulations.

Article 15-8 (1) The University has in place the Integrated Initiative for Designing Future Society as an organization to promote university-wide initiatives for solving social issues.

(2) The composition and other necessary matters of the Integrated Initiative for Designing Future Society are provided for separately by regulations.

(Data-Driven Innovation Initiative)

Article 15-9 (1) The University has in place the Data-Driven Innovation Initiative as an organization to promote university-wide data-driven activities and to study the ideal form of a new digital society.

(2) The composition and other necessary matters of the Data-Driven Innovation Initiative are provided for separately by regulations.

(Offices)

Article 16 (1) The University has in place offices as organizations for planning, promoting or supporting specific important matters.

(2) The offices referred to in the preceding paragraph are as set forth in the left-hand column of the following table, and the purposes of these offices are as provided respectively in the right-hand column of the same table:

Offices	Purposes
Office for the Promotion of University-Community Relations	Supporting actions to promote cooperative relationships between the University and the community (excluding industry-academia-government collaboration)
Global Strategies Office	Drawing up plans, etc. for global strategies
Office for the Planning and Coordination of International Affairs (OPCIA)	Supporting actions to promote international exchange
SHARE Office	Supporting actions to promote globalization on a university-wide basis
Office for Institutional Research	Supporting the University's decision-making by investigating, collecting, analyzing and providing basic information for university administration
New Campus Planning Office	Supporting actions to promote the campus plan
Office for Promotion of Environmental Management, Health and Safety	Supporting actions to promote health and safety
Office for Harassment Prevention and Counseling	Supporting actions to promote prevention of and measures against harassment
Office for the Promotion of Gender Equality	Supporting actions to promote gender equality
Working Groups for IT Environment	Supporting actions to promote the development of the information technology environment
Office for Promotion of an Integrated Transfer	Drawing up plans for the project of the integrated transfer and the development plan for the Ito Campus
Integrated Legal Office	Drawing up plans for enhancing the administrative function in legal affairs
Office for Kyushu University Fund	Fundraising (meaning activities carried out by the University to raise donations) for the Kyushu University Fund
Office for Alumni Outreach	Handling affairs relevant to alumni outreach
Office for Strategic Promotion of Public Relations	Supporting actions to promote public relations activities based on the public relations strategy
Former Campus Site Management Office	Drawing up plans concerning risk management for the disposal of the former campus site.

President Support Office	Drawing up plans, conducting coordination, and collecting information concerning the University's overall strategy, etc. based on the President's instructions.
Risk Management Office	Handling matters concerning risk management and response in times of crisis
Research Strategy Planning Office	Drawing up specific plans, etc. and designing systems for initiatives, etc. toward enhancing the research abilities of the University as a whole based on the University's research strategies
Open Innovation Platform	Supporting actions to promote industry-academia-government collaboration

(3) The internal organization and other necessary matters of each office referred to in the preceding paragraph are provided separately.

(Ito Clinic)

Article 16-2 (1) The University has in place Ito Clinic (hereinafter referred to as the "Clinic").

(2) The internal organization and other necessary matters of the Clinic are provided separately.

(Administrative Organizations)

Article 17 (1) The University has in place the Administration Bureau to deal with administrative work relevant to general affairs, accounting, facilities, welfare and guidance for students and other matters.

(2) The University has in place administrative offices in undergraduate schools, graduate schools, etc. of the University to deal with their respective administrative work; provided, however, that, if necessary, the University has in place an administrative office in two or more undergraduate schools, etc. to deal with their administrative work collectively.

(3) In addition to the administrative organizations provided in the preceding two paragraphs, the University has in place the Audit Office to conduct internal audits and assist audit work by Auditors.

(4) The internal organization and other necessary matters of the administrative organizations referred to in the preceding three paragraphs are provided separately by regulations.

(Tokatsugijutubu and Technical Divisions)

Article 17-2 (1) The University has in place the Tokatsugijutubu as a university-wide organization concerning technology support for education and research.

(2) The University may have in place technical divisions in undergraduate schools, graduate schools, the graduate faculties, the Faculty of Arts and Science, Attached Research Institutes or the like to provide technical support for education and research.

(3) The internal organization and other necessary matters of the Tokatsugijutubu referred to in the paragraph (1) and the technical divisions referred to in the preceding paragraph are provided separately.

Chapter III Officers, Employees, etc.

(Officers)

Article 18 Pursuant to the provisions of Article 10 of the National University Corporation Act (Act No. 112 of 2003); hereinafter referred to as the "Corporation Act"), the University has in place a President (referred to as the "President"), not more than eight Executive Vice Presidents, and two Auditors, as its officers.

(2) Assistants to the President are designated by the President from among professors and other employees.

(Faculty Directors)

Article 25 (1) The University has in place directors in undergraduate schools, graduate schools, graduate faculties, the Faculty of Arts and Science, Attached Research Institutes, the International Institute for Carbon-Neutral Energy Research, the Hospital, the University Library, and the Research Institute for Information Technology (hereinafter referred to as the "faculties") (the director of the faculties are hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Faculty Directors").

(2) Faculty Directors administer the operations of their relevant faculties.

(3) The University may have in place an Assistant Faculty Director in each faculty.

(4) An Assistant Faculty Director of each faculty, as provided by the Faculty Director, handles the operations of the faculty by assisting the Faculty Director, performs the duties of the Faculty Director in his/her place if the Faculty Director is unable to attend to his/her duties, and performs the duties of the Faculty Director if the post is vacant.

(5) The appointment procedures and other necessary matters relevant to Faculty Directors and Assistant Faculty Directors are provided separately by regulations.

(6) The University may have in place Department Directors in departments in undergraduate schools and departments in graduate schools.

(7) The appointment procedures and other necessary matters relevant to Department Directors shall be provided separately.

(Directors of Centers)

Article 26 (1) The University has in place Directors in Centers for Common Education and Research (the directors are hereinafter referred to as the "Directors").

(2) The Directors administer the operations of relevant Centers for Common Education and Research.

(3) The University may have in place an Assistant Director in each Center for Common Education and Research.
